

RealTalk

IDEAS FOR PARENTING YOUNG CHILDREN

Let's be honest: parenting young children can sometimes be hard. That's why we asked OSU early childhood experts to weigh in on the most common topics that families ask for help navigating in this RealTalk webinar series. Whether you are a father, mother, uncle, grandparent, or other parenting adult, join us for a 30-minute live session packed with information, tips, and Q&A. Or, watch the recording at a time that works best for you.

Upcoming RealTalk Webinars

Visit <https://ohiofamiliesengage.osu.edu/realtalk> for full details, to join the webinar, or to see recordings.

Navigating sibling rivalry and conflict resolution with kids

Wednesday, July 28 • 12:30-1pm • Zoom

Families must often cope with and mediate conflicts between siblings of all ages. Learn why conflicts occur, when to support children, and how to set siblings up for less conflict.

Making the Most of Story Times at Home with your Child

Wednesday, August 11 • 12:30-1pm • Zoom

Reading, storytelling, singing together, and talking together as a family are at the core of early childhood family engagement. Learn how to make story time with your kids even more fun and beneficial.

Potty Training Basics and Troubleshooting

Wednesday, September 22 • 12:30-1pm • Zoom

Learning how to use the toilet involves many new skills for children. Come talk with us about the process and how to keep your cool as you support your child through this rite of passage.

This series is free and open to all. Registration is not required. Use the link below to join a session:

<https://go.osu.edu/realtalk>

The RealTalk series is presented in partnership by the Ohio Statewide Family Engagement Center and the A. Sophie Rogers School for Early Learning at The Ohio State University.

If you require an accommodation to participate in an event, please contact OhioSFEC@osu.edu.