

LITERACY. NOW.

A National Parent-Led Conference to End the Literacy Crisis

Presented by Parents for Reading Justice

Join families and advocates from across the country for an unforgettable event focused on truth, hope, action, and literacy justice.

Event Details

When

Sunday,
August 2, 2026

Time

3:00 – 6:00
PM EST

Location

Virtual via Zoom

Sponsorship Opportunities Now Available!

*See back for
featured speakers,
session titles, and
how to register.*

---

LITERACY. NOW.

---

Featured Speakers & Sessions

Kareen Weaver

National Literacy Advocate

Session: Reading Saves Lives: Literacy as a Civil Right, a Human Right, and a Public Health Crisis

Louisa Moats

Literacy Expert & Researcher

Session: 95% of Children Can Learn to Read: The Science We've Known for Decades and How It Continues to Evolve

Kerry Agins

Special Education Attor Session: The Law Is on Your Side:

Session: IDEA, FAPE, Child Find, and the Civil Rights That Protect Every Child

Steven Dykstra

Clinical Psychologist & Science of Reading Advocate

Session: The Hidden Wound: How Reading Failure Traumatizes Children and Why We Must Do Better

Brett Tingley

National Literacy Advocate

Session: From Outrage to Outcomes: How Parents Fixed a District, Changed a State, and Built a National Movement

Register now for this first-of-its-kind
virtual event

Because children cannot wait.