

Within Reach: Multi-Tiered Family Engagement

Principal Intensive

Individual Professionals Path: Level 1 & 2

Within Reach is a summer intensive for principals who want to move their school past basic family engagement events and create a system that actually connects with every family. In today's educational landscape, true partnership is the key to student success. This seminar transforms family engagement by first centering families' needs and preferences and then planning responsive school strategies to create a robust, research-based framework that reaches every family.

*In-Person Institute

Dates: Tuesday, July 20 to Thursday, July 22, 2027.

Schedule: 8:45 AM to 4:30 PM, with a break for lunch on your own.

Location: Center on Education and Training for Employment, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH

Learning Objectives:

- I can design family engagement practices to engage all families of my students more effectively.
- I can explain how the multi-tiered family engagement framework helps my school achieve its goals.
- I can create a Multi-Tiered Family Engagement plan that's ready to go for my school.

Outcome:

Principals have written a multi-tiered family engagement action plan, ready to go, for the upcoming year (2027-2028) at their home school.

Prerequisite: None

Contact Hours: 30

Details:

- This in-person intensive is free, but lodging, meals, and transportation are not included.
- Space is limited. After the Institute is full, applicants will be placed on a waitlist.
- You must have the support of your supervisor and your building leadership team.
- Please identify one additional team member (teacher leader, co-administrator, school counselor, etc.) who will assist you with leading the launch of your family engagement plan and invite this individual to attend the institute with you. Note: This is a requirement for acceptance to the Institute, and you will provide their contact details during the application process. They do not apply separately.
